Oriental accents have long been a popular element of bohemian and eclectic interiors. Oriental colour palettes, patterns and motifs, such as birds and flowers can bring a sense of serenity into a space or they can make strong statements, particularly with unusual shapes and materials.

This versatility of oriental aesthetics continues to inspire contemporary home decoration and interior design."

Go where you feel most alive

Oriental interior design ideas include a commitment to natural materials a trend that's far-reaching and a huge part of the global interior design commentary. The Chinese perspective is about preserving nature, honouring nature and appreciating the positive effect using natural resources can have on a person's wellbeing. By bringing nature into our homes, it helps us to let go of the from the bustle of everyday life, whether this is wooden furniture, rugs woven from natural fibres or using stones as objects of beauty and spiritual grounding.
